

Our response to UNHCRInnovation Claim on twitter

This is a response to a claim by @ChrisEarney @UNHCRInnovation @corinnelgray on twitter that we Thefounder (www.thefounder.co.ke) never credited the two articles we shared on our website from <http://innovation.unhcr.org> and www.neeneeproductions.com @intheneenee for being the original content creator.

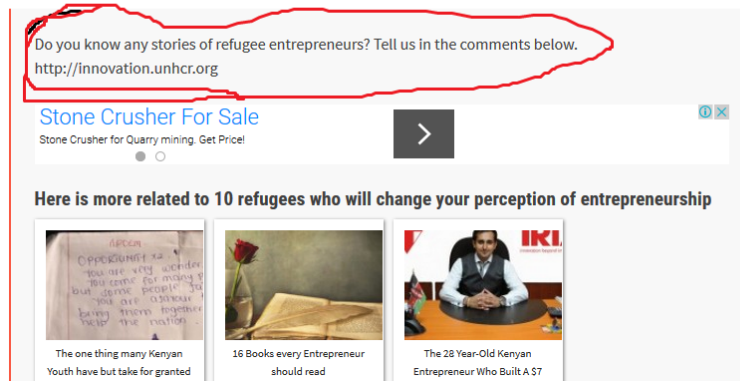

First, we must confess that we are very flattered to draw such attention from the above account holders. And now we address the issue.

This claim is false, a lie and work of ignorance from the people managing the three accounts @ChrisEarney @UNHCRInnovation @corinnelgray at the moment of the claim. If they had read the article to the end, then they could have noticed a link to their website on the bottom of the said articles.

Here are screenshots from the said articles to evidently show that the three account holders on twitter need to APOLOGIZE publicly to @thefounderkenya (www.thefounder.co.ke) for defamation.

Nakivale Refugee Settlement, operated by UNHCR, is filled with refugees who have fled violence, mostly from the Democratic Republic of Congo. It's also filled with entrepreneurs. In 2012, three refugees, who are co-founders of Umeme Group, were given a maize mill by a German NGO. When the maize market became flooded, they converted the machine into an electricity generator, and now sell power to 27 fellow refugees and to new businesses that require electricity, such as a soft drink shop, and a little cinema.

If they are doing it, why can't you?

Know any organizations that provide a platform for refugees to tell their own stories? Write to us at innovation@unhcr.org

Here is more related to The one thing many Kenyan Youth have but take for granted

It is evident that Thefounder (www.thefounder.co.ke) credited the source of the content. The fact that the three account holders ganged up to humiliate the reputation that Thefounder has worked hard to build is disappointing. We here at the founder will continue to do our best to help young people start businesses to create jobs for the better tomorrow.

Thank you
